To Europe in Comfort Under the Stars and Stripes

EVERY room in the new American-built ships is an outside room, every room has twin beds (no berths), most of them a private bath—all the many little comforts that make an ocean voyage something to enjoy—not just endure.

These ships conform to American ideas of comfort and luxury—this undoubtedly accounts for the number of experienced travelers now "going to Europe via U. S. Mail." The cuisine and service you will long remember.

Transformation Illusion

Light as a puffy dandelion, porous as a crown of leaves and exactly like your own hair at its best—that is the modern Transformation. It owes its present state of perfection to Pierre, who has been established in New York for the past 18 years and is the most important maker of transformations. Booklet.

The most modishly becoming coiffure is a mere matter of fastening a hook and eye.
